Questions to Ask before developing a plan

1. Are there people with Disabilities already using your library?

2. What agencies or schools for people with disabilities exist in your community?

3. Do you have an advisory committee that includes representation for people with disabilities?

4. What are the barriers that keep people with disabilities from using your library?

5. If you could do only one thing to improve services for people with disabilities, what would it be?